Roll Call of Commissioners

I. Approval of Minutes

Approve Minutes of the April 4, 2018 meeting.

Motion/Second: Alfaro/Garcia Passed unanimously.

II. Agenda Review (Additions/Corrections to the Agenda)

None.

III. Oral Communications by Commissioners or Members of the Public (on items not on the agenda)

None

IV. Affordable Housing Bond

- a. Alfaro reported public response was mixed at community engagement meetings. A needs assessment will be conducted to better identify concerns and inform allocation of funds by district.
- b. The following four priorities were established: HUD project preservation, a first-time homebuyer program, an innovation and opportunity program, and a homelessness fund.
- c. Among the terms still to be determined are how many Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs) can be created, how much property tax to levy, what the term of the bond will be, and how to best allocate the funds regionally. Additional details expected to be available in late July before the next LAC meeting.
- d. County staff to monitor Board Agenda for Affordable Housing Bond Consideration items.

V. Strategic Plan Update

Staff provided overview of updates to the Strategic Plan.

VI. Community Events: Co-sponsorships

Garcia reported that commissioners participated in both the 100th Anniversary of Watsonville Time Capsule and the Cesar Chavez Awards.

VII. Commissioner Reports

a. District 1:

- i. Reyes reported on two recent Sheriff's Department community meetings regarding local gang activity, graffiti, vandalism and increased crime.
- ii. Reyes reported on the Live Oak Cradle to Career Initiative. The program addresses unique needs of Live Oak families, including improving opportunities for education, training for teachers, opportunities for parent engagement, healthy breakfasts for children, affordable housing, better jobs, clear pathways to citizenship and more access to scholarships and career programs.

b. District 2:

- i. Vargas Vega reported on his work with the Adobe Initiative Program to enhance civic engagement with technology. He is currently engaged in projects related to the citizenship and development of the 2020 Census.
- ii. Vargas Vega reported that he will be attending the local Tech Rising event at the end of May.
- iii. Vargas Vega will review the Commission's website. County staff will email Vargas Vega a link to the Manufactured and Mobile Home Commission website.

c. District 3:

- i. Franco asked subcommittees to convene in July to review action items and gain momentum on the project.
- ii. Alfaro reported that the Affordable Housing Bond community meeting in Santa Cruz was well-attended by a mix of attendees and viewpoints. Visual aids and handouts were provided to make the information accessible.
- iii. Reyes and Hernandez Rosser discussed the recent Senderos Oaxacan Cultural Festival held at San Lorenzo Park. The event has grown rapidly and attracted major sponsors this year. This created some concern that the wider audience might dilute participation of the community the event intends to serve.
- iv. Commissioners to meet with City Managers and elected officials in December/January to discuss the Latino Affairs Commission Strategic Action Plan before presenting an update to the Board of Supervisors.

d. District 4: No report.

e. District 5: No report.

f. City of Santa Cruz:

- i. Hernandez Rosser invited commissioners to graduation ceremonies next month on the UCSC campus. Eleven students will be graduating from the American Indian program and 400 from the Chicano/Latino program.
- ii. Hernandez Rosser reported that there is some opposition to a proposal to build student housing on the meadow of the UCSC despite a current shortage of available housing and an increase in homeless students.
- iii. Alfaro reported that City events the first weekend of June include The Ebb and Flow Festival and the Santa Cruz 2018 Pride Parade.
- iv. Alfaro reported that the City of Santa Cruz recently partnered with Social Bicycles to launch a city-wide JUMP E-bike sharing program this year.
- v. Alfaro reported that two hundred people attended the May 15th City of Santa Cruz Housing Blueprint Subcommittee meeting which outlined plans for the downtown area, transportation issues, inclusionary housing and community engagement.
- vi. The Veterans and the Affordable Housing Act State Bond is on the November Ballot. Garcia and Alfaro recommended that the Commission support the Veterans and Affordable Housing Act.

g. City of Watsonville:

- i. Garcia reported that a meeting will be held May 31 in Watsonville to review the inclusionary housing program.

- ii. Garcia reported that a Salinas regional meeting is scheduled for May 31, 2018 regarding the 2020 Census.
- iii. Guevara reported that a recent Salinas Housing Study for Farmworkers in the Pajaro Valley indicated that while the farming industry brings billions of dollars into both Santa Cruz and Monterey Counties annually, families of farmworkers continue to live in extremely congested and substandard housing conditions.
- iv. Guevara reported that the Affordable Housing Bond meeting in Watsonville was well-attended and most attendees were in support of the bond.
- v. Guevara visited with families of farmworkers to address housing issues and reported that families are afraid to complain to landlords about poor living conditions. There has been an increase in homelessness, and agricultural workers report being impacted adversely by climate change.
- vi. A meeting in early May addressed the results of an impact study which will become available to the public later this year. County staff will distribute report to Commission when available.

VIII. Staff Report

Update on the County Equal Opportunity Employment Plan development.

IX. Hispanic Heritage Month Review

- a. Commissioners discussed this year’s Art Wall theme and provided a timeline for development and installation. Photographs of the work of Watsonville muralist Guillermo Aranda, work from selected up-and-coming artists, and featured art programs from local High Schools and Colleges may be displayed.
- b. If possible, installation will occur the last week of August followed by a reception for the public on Friday, September 7, 2018. The Art Wall will be displayed through the month of September.

X. Adjournment: 7:45 pm
